

Dornsife School of Public Health

Department of Epidemiology & Biostatistics

Required	Strongly Recommended	Minimum Requirements	Other factors
Two semesters of college calculus; one semester of linear algebra	Knowledge of programming language; multivariable calculus	A bachelor's in a quantitative field, such as: math, statistics, computer science or a related field, or in a scientific area, such as: natural, biological, or medical sciences	Students are evaluated based on several factors, including their grades, letters of recommendation, and personal statement

Current Practice on Application Fee Waiver:

Applications are accepted through the SOPHAS system. Information on waivers can be found at:

<https://portal.sophas.org/sophasHelpPages/frequently-asked-questions/school-information/generalfee-waivers/>

Website: <http://drexel.edu/dornsife/academics/degrees/ms-degree-in-biostatistics/>