

University of Montana

Department of Mathematics

Required	Strongly Recommended	Minimum Requirements	Other Factors
Completed on-line application form, including non-refundable application fee. Scores for the GRE General Test, optional for citizens of foreign countries who take the TOEFL* exams. Submit test scores directly from GRE or TOEFL to the Grad School via our institution code: 4489. Three letters of recommendation, submitted by the writer via the Graduate Schools online application process. You may alternatively mail letters in a sealed envelope signed by the writer, with the items below, directly to the Math Department. Evaluation Form to include with mailed letters. Official transcripts of all previous college work . (transcript request form) Content descriptions of all college-level mathematics courses completed. A personal statement of objectives. Applicants for a Master's or a Ph.D. degree must have a Bachelor's degree by time of their enrollment. In addition to the above requirements, applicants are encouraged to submit other evidence indicating the ability to pursue an advanced degree in mathematics (such as the GRE subject test in mathematics).

Current Practice on Application Fee Waiver:

More Information: <http://cas.umt.edu/math/graduate/>